

This Parent Preview is designed to assist you in your role as your student's primary spiritual leader. This will provide advance notice before mature or sensitive topics are mentioned, as well as scripture and points to help guide conversation with your students. The Quay Students Team remains available as a resource and support to you in navigating faith conversations at home. Please send any questions to students@quaychurch.org.

Collection: Legacy

Legacy explores what it means to faithfully steward every resource God has entrusted to us. Throughout this collection, we'll examine what Jesus had to say about money, generosity, and stewardship—revealing that our relationship with earthly resources often reflects the condition of our hearts. Together, we'll be challenged to become a church whose generosity reflects the Gospel, whose possessions serve God's purposes, and whose legacy points people to Jesus for generations to come. This collection will walk through similar topics as our churchwide Sunday morning gatherings, at a level appropriate for Middle School students.

We hope this series not only shapes what students believe but also creates meaningful conversations at home. Below is a brief preview of each week's topic along with a few questions you can use to continue the discussion with your student.

October 7: Quay on the Lawn (Topic TBA)

October 14: Evidence of Encounter

Primary Scripture: Luke 19:1-10

Key Point: When we follow Jesus, our heart is transformed.

Guided Questions:

- Why do you think following Jesus should change the way someone lives?
- What is one area of your life where you think Jesus may be changing your heart?
- Why do you think real change starts in the heart instead of just with our behavior?

October 21: The Rich Fool (Ben Totten)

Primary Scripture: Luke 12:13-21

Key Point: Success without surrender is spiritual bankruptcy.

Guided Questions:

- Why do you think Jesus called the rich man foolish even though he was successful?
- What are some ways success can become more important to us than following Jesus?
- What is something you're proud of right now, and how can you keep God at the center of it?

October 28th: Set the Course

Primary Scripture: Matt. 6:19-21

Key Point: What we set our hearts on sets the course for our lives.

Guided Questions:

- What are some things that are really easy to care too much about?
- What are some things you want your life to be centered around?
- What is one thing you could change this week to help keep your heart focused on Jesus?

Thank you for partnering with us in discipling your student. While our conversations happen on Wednesday nights, we believe some of the most meaningful spiritual growth happens around the dinner table, in the car, or during everyday conversations at home. We hope these questions help continue what God begins each week as together we help students know, trust, and follow Jesus.
